EMERSON SPICE & EMERSON ON HURUMZI

EMERSON ZANZIBAR

— SINCE 1989 —

Emerson Zanzibar is a homegrown hospitality brand located in the World Heritage Site of Stone Town. The brand boasts a pair of hotels where culture, design and art have fused to create exclusive and authentic experiences. Emerson on Hurumzi is known for its flamboyance and ostentatiousness while Emerson Spice, originally a merchant's house, features Zenji Deco colours and motifs. Similarly, Emerson Zanzibar celebrates gastronomy with its popular conceptualized restaurants that honour the heritage of Zanzibar with international influences.

Community development plays an important role for Emerson Zanzibar, which was realized in the formation of the Emerson Zanzibar Foundation to support culture, art and education in Zanzibar. The hotel collection carries the hopes and plans of the late Emerson Skeens in bettering individual lives and seeking ways to improve the education and future prospects of Zanzibaris.

EXPLORE | ZANZIBAR

Zanzibar's Stone Town offers a unique cultural experience, fascinating street life, a range of restaurants, interesting shopping, annual Music and Film festivals such as Sauti za Busara and ZIFF, and traditional music concerts at the Dhow Countries Music Academy.

Zanzibar is small and easy to get around. Nothing on the island is more than an hour away. We can arrange excursions to the coasts, or boat trips to the marine parks, sandbanks and islands nearby. Spice tours, City tours, Cultural tours, Historical tours are best from town.

EMERSON ON HURUMZI

The Emerson on Hurumzi building at 236 Hurumzi Street, was built in the 1870s by the powerful merchant Sir Tharia Thopan. He served as a principal financial adviser to Sultan Bargash and was the head of customs. The rooftop Tea House itself may have been designed as an observation point to control the activities of the port, which was located in the waters just in front of the nearby “House of Wonders”.

THE ROOMS

Emerson on Hurumzi presently has 10 rooms ready for guests, including two suites with their own private tea houses. The double rooms have one queen size double antique Swahili bed, enclosed en suite WC, bath and shower that is open or semi-open to the room. Therefore the double rooms are not suitable as twins, although we can add a baby cot when needed. There are twin set up rooms in case separate beds are required.

THE RESTAURANTS

The rooftop Tea House Dinner Experience offers cocktails at the sunset hour, dinner celebrating the pleasure of Zanzibar cuisine fused with oriental Persian and Omani influences, as well as traditional Taarab performances by accomplished musicians from the Dhow Countries Music Academy.

The full evening dining experience includes a set 3 course menu at $40 per person excl. drinks. Cuisine and service is designed to marry the culture and style of the building with the distinct culinary heritage of the era.

There is one exclusive sitting only for dinner, and service begins promptly at 7PM, but we welcome dinner guests from 6PM to enjoy the spectacular views of sea and city. Advance reservations required. Due to the limited seating, a deposit is required to guarantee your reservation.

A lavish, though lighter, Lunch is served between 12AM and 4PM (last kitchen orders at 3.30PM)

Chambre Séparée Roshani is available for up to 15 guests, and is also where the Emerson Zanzibar Tea Ceremony takes place.

EMERSON SPICE

The principal structure which now houses Emerson Spice is actually a melding of two buildings and several distinct styles of architecture. The older L-shaped wing on the Northeast side, built in the Swahili Arab style, was originally owned by the last Swahili ruler of Zanzibar, Muhammad bin Ahmed, known as the Mwinyi Mkuu

THE ROOMS

All rooms but Mimi have their own private veranda. All rooms are equipped with a small fridge, air conditioner, fan, and high ceiling mosquito net. The double rooms have one queen size double antique Swahili bed, enclosed en suite WC and bath and shower that is open or semi-open to the room. Therefore the double rooms are not suitable as twins, although we can add a baby cot when needed. Aida is a duplex, suitable as a double or for a family with up to three children. On the first level there is a queen size bed in the main area, a single daybed in the sitting area, and two singles in the mezzanine loft. Both WC and bath are en suite and enclosed.

THE RESTAURANTS

The Rooftop Tea House Restaurant

The Seafood based, set 'Taste Safari' degustation menu is prepared daily by our Zanzibari chefs.

There is one exclusive sitting for dinner only, and service begins promptly at 7PM, but we welcome dinner guests from 6PM to enjoy the views in the sunset hour.

The full menu includes a set 5 course menu at $40 per person excl. drinks.

Advance reservations required. Due to the limited seating, a deposit is required to guarantee your reservation.

The Secret Garden Restaurant

Set amidst lushly landscaped hidden 'ruins', open to the skies, a Zanzibari inspired à la carte menu is offered at dinner. Look out for special events and performances of up and coming Zanzibari musicians.

A lighter seafood based Lunch is served in both restaurants between 12AM and 4PM (last kitchen orders at 3.30PM)
